

Community Resources

HOUSING, SHELTER AND PERSONAL SAFETY

This flyer provides a list of housing, shelter and personal safety resources in the mid-Michigan area. It is not a complete list. You can also call Michigan 2-1-1, who can connect you to help of all kinds, including food, housing, paying bills, and crisis support. 2-1-1 is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.

If you encounter difficulty reaching 2-1-1 using a cell phone, please call 844-875-9211 or visit my211.org

SAFETY ALERT: If you are in danger, contact one of the organizations below that can help, call 911, or U.S. National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233 and TTY 1-800-787-3224

SAFETY PLANNING is an important first step toward protecting yourself and these resources can assist you.

Crisis Text Line: Text HOME to 741741 anywhere in the USA to text with a trained Crisis Counselor (FREE 24/7). Using a safe computer, go to Michigan.gov/MDHHS/ site for their domestic and sexual violence page for additional resources including link to technology safety planning and social networking privacy tips.
